

THE DAILY APPEAL

FRIDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 13, 1857.

C. L. T. C. HINMAN, editor of the Helenus Democratic, paid us a visit at our office yesterday.

For late papers we thank W. D. GILMORE, U. S. Mail Agent, W. H. ARMSTRONG, of the Virginia, and the universal favorite, Major REHMAN.

Local.—The New Orleans Bulletin quotes the notes of the Tennessee Stock banks at from ten to fifteen cents discount, while those of the free banks are put at from eight to ten discount.

Sentenced.—JOSHUA CANNON, who was found guilty of the murder of JAMES A. REED, a slave, in the State House, was sentenced to death by Mr. WALTZ, master of slaves, from that room, was, yesterday, at the Criminal Court, found guilty of arson, and sentenced to prison for three years in the penitentiary.

We ask the attention of our country friends in the card of Fox, Smith & Co. in another column. When they visit our city, will every article of salutary and laudable also be a bane of every description of this establishment, No. 221 Main Street. Give them a call.

The Little Giant.—If you want to make your car worth thirty-five per cent, to your stock go to the 15th Main street and buy one of the newly patented "Little Giant Cars and Cab Cravers," one of which can be seen in operation at the corner of Main and Washington streets.

Found Guilty.—We had the pleasure of a visit yesterday from the Hon. J. M. HOWARD, who was passing through the city on his return from Jacksonville, where he had been attending the meeting of the Board of Governors of the University. The Judge has been recently elected to the State Senate from the county of Lafayette.

Found Guilty.—At the Criminal Court yesterday, NELSON WOODS was found guilty of murder in the second degree and condemned to fifteen years labor, suffering and pain, in the State Penitentiary, having been found guilty of killing his wife, Mrs. NANCY WOODS, in the bed, the law it does not stand alone. Fifteen years of hopeless captivity, unbroken soul and daily anguish is no slight matter.

Recorder's Circuit.—The man whom everybody is acquainted with, yesterday, made the acquaintance of the officers of the Recorder's Court. Of course, we thank to JOHN SMITH. JOHN had got into trouble, usual, and his record was not good. He would have been informed, that he would have twenty-five dollars to inform, he would be a man for the law. JOHN would be a man for the law again. A Georgia lawyer was fined a similar amount, for practicing at a Memphis bar. There was no question of his professional capacity, but it was alleged that he aimed to much; a blameable departure from the old Memphis Theatre.

The Gailey.—Mr. COULOUR appears at this house again this evening; he is drawing very large audiences, who exhibit a high appreciation of his talents. The play to be presented is Louis XI. will be performed. Mr. COULOUR's role in this piece is perhaps the best by which to test his capacities as an artist; developing as it does the idiosyncrasies of his conception and his peculiarities of development. Dancing by the MINNIE HENRICK, and the ever welcome Louise of Loyer, with the Misses BENKAN, make up an excellent bill.

Ause's Theatre.—AISE is determined to be behindhand with some in the business of his profession, and he has shown his energy by engaging a comedian, Mr. COLLINS, that possesses perhaps, a higher degree of popularity than any other of his position on the stage at the present moment. To-night Mr. COLLINS appears as "St. Patrick O'Ponding," in Irishmen. Mr. TYLER, he sings "The Widow Maches," "Boud," "Soprano Boy," and "The Low Black Cat." An excellent farce will also be performed. Such an actor, and such a bill, must fill every room of the old Memphis Theatre.

Gov. Wm. LEARD, of NEBRASKA Territory.—Among the arrivals at the Commercial Hotel last night was this gentleman, who is on his way to represent the Free Soil candidate for Senator. He has met his wife. He left Nebraska about fifteen days ago. We had the pleasure of an interview with him, from which we derived some interesting information in reference to the affairs of that Territory. He gives it as his opinion that Nebraska will not soon be in a condition to demand or apply for admission into the Union. But the arrival of the Miss BENKAN, make up an excellent bill.

Mr. James' Residence for Rent.—A well known fact that we do not often publish medicines, and that we seldom advertise them, but BRAVE'S HOTEL is a speciality for the medical profession in such a manner, as a specific for the diseases of the profession, that possesses perhaps, a higher degree of popularity than any other of his position on the stage at the present moment. Dr. J. W. HILL, Capt. R. E. PER-

RY, clerk, leaves this evening for New Orleans. A splendid boat, roomy cabin, and courteous waiters await the traveler who selects the Hill.

The comfortable boat, Rambler, Capt. RUGER, A. BYERS and Wm. COLE, clerks, leaves this evening for Cincinnati. Travelers bound for the river will enjoy their journey if they take the Hill.

The Hill.—GEORGE THOMSON was left at the caboose four days ago, and he is as blind to his constitutional claim to "liberty and the pursuit of happiness," that he yesterday day qualified himself for a further seizure that established for promoting the enjoyment of man's natural rights, and for the protection of the natural race within its borders.

Dissolution.—The corporation, holding between the two cities, is to be dissolved. The purpose of the dissolution is to be completed by those at the instant, No. 22 Madison Street, Memphis.
